

2026 Abstract Submission Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions are listed below:

1. By submission of an abstract, the author(s) understand that:
 - while they retain ownership of copyright of their presentation, AHURI may publish their abstract, PowerPoint presentation and/or any biographical information in the conference pocket program, media releases, social media platforms and on the conference website, portal and/or app;
 - their presentation may be filmed and/or audio recorded and may be made available after the presentation and /or conference;
 - their final PowerPoint presentation will be collected prior to the conference and uploaded to the conference portal/app and to the conference website; and
 - should their final PowerPoint presentation change to what was provided prior to the conference the revised version will be collected and uploaded to the conference portal/app and website.
2. Acceptance is conditional on the speaker registering to attend the conference.
3. Speakers must register as a delegate by 19 April 2026 and have paid for their registration no later than 3 May 2026.
4. Speakers will be provided a special registration rate that will be less than the Early Bird registration fee. Speakers will be sent a link to register upon acceptance of the invitation.
5. Speakers acknowledge that if they have not registered by 19 April and paid by 3 May 2026, AHURI may withdraw the invitation to present at the conference.
6. Speakers are responsible for their own travel, accommodation, and incidentals in respect to attending the conference.
7. If you are including an accompanying speaker with lived experience, please ensure you have read the following AHURI documents:
 - Our commitment to including the voices of Consumers and Lived Experience
 - AHURI guidelines for Consumer and Lived Experience payment

If a Lived Experience speaker is not in a paid position at a relevant organisation, AHURI will provide them with complimentary registration. Payment, travel and accommodation costs for a speaker with Lived Experience remain the responsibility of the organisation including them in the abstract submission. Where this is not possible, the speaker/organisation may apply to AHURI for support to cover travel and accommodation expenses to enable them to attend - noting that there is no guarantee this will be provided and is subject to availability of funding.
